AMBITION

Our story begins with the design and production of uniforms for some of the world's leading airlines companies.

For over twenty years, the desire to face new challenges and the know-how we apply for each project, from design to distribution, have allowed us to become an established reality in the world of motorsports too, by undertaking important collaborations for the production of racing teamwear.

Over 50 companies in the sector have currently chosen to rely on EGV1, including Abarth and Alfa Romeo Racing, the team for which the clothing and merchandising for the 2019 and 2020 World Championships were produced.

Furthermore, in 2020, Ivy Oxford, the renowned clothing brand acquired by EGV1, became Alfa Romeo Racing ORLEN official partner, appearing on the cars and on all teamwear during the 2020 Formula One world championship.
